

NEWSLETTERS

SAGCOT Newsletter (2024)Q1

Published: 24 April 2024

Inside SAGCOT Q1 2024 Newsletter Highlights

1. Tanzania-Norway Partnership Strengthens Agricultural Innovation in SAGCOT Corridor

Page 5

This article explores how Tanzania's collaboration with Norway drives new agricultural innovations within the SAGCOT Corridor, focusing on sustainable solutions and technological advancements.

2. Yara Training Center Opens in SAGCOT Region to Boost Sustainable Farming and Farmer Empowerment

Page 7

Yara International's new training centre is dedicated to empowering local farmers by promoting sustainable practices, improving soil health, and enhancing regional productivity.

3. A New Chapter in Agriculture and Biodiversity: Unveiling the Africa Vegetable Gene Bank in Tanzania

Page 10

Launching the Africa Vegetable Gene Bank marks a significant step in preserving biodiversity while supporting research and development for vegetable farming in Tanzania.

4. Rollout of AGCOT to Usher in a New Era of Agricultural Prosperity

Page 11

The transition from SAGCOT to AGCOT heralds a new era of agricultural prosperity aimed at scaling up agricultural investments and development across the region.

5. Celebrating EFTA's Achievement in High-Impact Lending to Agricultural SMEs

Page 12

EFTA's success in providing impactful lending solutions to agricultural SMEs is highlighted, showcasing its role in supporting small businesses in Tanzania's agricultural sector.

6. Empowering Rice Farmers through Soil Health Initiatives in the Mbeya Region

Page 13

This piece emphasizes the importance of soil health initiatives empowering rice farmers in Mbeya, helping them increase yields and ensure long-term sustainability.

7. Tanzania Forging Ahead in Potato Production Innovation

Page 14

Tanzania's advancements in potato production are spotlighted, detailing innovative techniques and partnerships that are boosting the crop's productivity.

8. Spice Industry Set to Bloom with the Establishment of Value Chain Strategic Partnership

Page 16

A newly established strategic partnership is set to invigorate Tanzania's spice industry, focusing on enhancing value chain development and global competitiveness.

9. Spotlight on SAGCOT Partner: Vonkavy Using Poultry Value Chain for Forward Development

Page 18

Vonkavy is leveraging the poultry value chain to drive agricultural development, focusing on improving productivity and market access for smallholder farmers.

10. SAGCOT and TARI: Strengthening Agricultural Collaboration for Long-Term Growth in Tanzania

Page 21

The partnership between SAGCOT and the Tanzania Agricultural Research Institute (TARI) aims to enhance research-driven agricultural growth in the country.

11. Soybean Cultivation: Mbozi Farmers Foster a Hopeful Future

Page 22

Farmers in Mbozi are cultivating soybeans as a key crop for food security and economic empowerment with the support of SAGCOT initiatives.

12. Tanzania Gears Up for Nane Nane Agricultural Exhibition 2024

Page 24

Preparations are underway for the 2024 Nane Nane exhibition, with SAGCOT and its partners showcasing innovations and solutions in agriculture.

13. Tackling Post-Harvest Losses with the "Tuhifadhi Chakula" Project

Page 25

The Tuhifadhi Chakula project addresses post-harvest losses, offering farmers practical solutions to preserve their crops and maximize profitability.

14. Empowering Tanzanian Agriculture: A Leap Forward with Dodoma Cement and Avocado Farming

Page 26

A unique collaboration between Dodoma Cement and avocado farmers fosters economic growth, highlighting the role of cross-industry partnerships.

15. Spotlight SAGCOT Women: Road Warrior & Role Model - Goreth Mfuse's Story of Empowerment

Page 27

This inspiring story features Goreth Mfuse, a Tanzanian agriculture pioneer whose journey highlights women's empowerment in farming and leadership roles.

Published 24 April 2024 · Newsletters

Source: <https://agcot.org/2024/04/24/sagcot-newsletter-2024q1/> · AGCOT Centre, Dar es Salaam